Principal’s Report

Community Focus Evening:
Last Monday week, College Councillors facilitated parents, students and teachers, in discussions which focussed on two short sessions of feedback on Reports and Vocational Pathways Programs and the giving of feedback after a presentation on the 2015 Introduction of 1:1 Personal Learning Devices for Years 7 and 10. The evening was supported by just over 100 people and we thank everyone for their positive and constructive feedback. This alignment of high expectation from our parents, students and staff is so very valuable to our work in striving to deliver the best possible programs and outcomes for our students. There was much to report from that night so over the next three newsletters we will feature the responses for one of the topic areas.

Focus 1: Vocational Pathways and Transition Programs

Context: During 2014, as a response to the ‘Focus on the Future Directions’ Evening, last year, the College identified Transition and Vocational Pathways Programs as a priority for the Strategic Plan and as such has already implemented a number of changes to the program.
To date the improvements have been designed with two objectives in mind:

1. providing opportunities to focus on the relationship between what students are studying and a future pathway
2. providing students and parents with information and counselling support so that student subject selection is far more informed

The Action Follow-up from this evening:

- Immediately, the focus is to continue the rolling through of purposeful counselling especially for the Year 11s and then giving Year 12s support for their pathways beyond the College and to notify students of University Open Days.
- The College will investigate the most effective means for careers profiling for students.
- Although already investigated, the College will invest in a Vocational Program that will be implemented for 2015 which will facilitate careers investigations and family discussions. This program will be accessed through the website so that students and parents can reference information at home and at the College level will record each student’s career explorations and interest. We are hoping to include Student Goal setting as part of this process.
- It is important for the College to clearly communicate the staff who are involved in the delivery of the Vocational Pathways Programs and their specific roles. For this year, Ms Irene Vafeas-Walsham is the VET Coordinator and Mr Duncan Pitt, is the person to book into for specific counselling. Both are part-time in this role. In 2015, the College will advertise this position.
- The timing of subject selection must be at this time of year. However, the inaugural Subject Expo proved successful but parents would like access and this is something we can explore.

There is much to be done but we are excited by the positive feedback. By the end of 2014, the overhaul of this program will deliver a blueprint for a dynamic Vocational Pathways Program in the College.
“Hairspray”

The musical “Hairspray” is based on a book by Mark O’Donnell and Thomas Meehan. The music was composed by Marc Shaiman who with Scott Wittman, wrote the lyrics. Set in Baltimore, Maryland in 1962, the action takes place mostly on the set of a local TV dance program, The Corny Collins Show. Plump teenager Tracy Turnblad’s dream is to dance on the show and despite nasty opposition, she wins a role. Tracy becomes a celebrity overnight and not only does she meet the love of her life on the show but she launches a campaign to make the TV show inclusive of black singers and dancers. Previously it had discriminated against the black community, allowing ‘a Negro Day’ once a month. The 1960s-style dance music and “downtown” rhythm and blues is catchy but the show is deceptive. Despite its lightheartedness, Hairspray is a social commentary on the injustices of discrimination, especially as it was in the 1960s.

As a contemporary show, “Hairspray” is well known to students and families and it isn’t any wonder that demand for seats far exceeded places available. (We certainly need that new slightly larger auditorium built!) We had added another show but it is not an easy thing to do, given that we have students who are performing each night and then getting up to come to school each day. I am sure by the last show on Saturday night, there were lots of very tired and emotional students, as well as staff and parents. Exhausted they were but I am confident that they all left the show feeling proud that they had given their best.

Directors Andrew ‘Hondo’ Hondromatidis and Broden Kelly, along with Producer Amanda Watson decided that if they were to do “Hairspray” then the bar would have to go up even higher. Andrew had come off touring in ‘South Pacific’ and after that experience of professional theatre, his expectations were even higher than before. He and Broden had the students working hard right from February - quite a marathon. Andrew took on the added role as choreographer and the dancing was a highlight. Especially heartening was seeing so many boys actually dancing in their own right, rather than being just the partners of girl dancers and this was a huge plus for the show. Andrew, wanted this to be the perfect show as he along with Broden, will be off pursuing dreams next year. Both Andrew and Broden have launched into their professional careers with quite some success, given that it is such a competitive industry where ‘resting’ is the norm. Such is the demands of the actor’s world that Broden had to take off to Edinburgh for the Comedy Festival with his comedy group, “Aunty Donna”, just before opening night. However, Andrew had everything under control. We could not have wanted for more. Three years ago Andrew and Broden came back after graduating from university and were confident in their purpose. All three shows have been testimony to their creativeness and commitment. ‘Hairspray’ like the others, demonstrated Andrew’s high expectations, his inclusiveness and his capacity to encourage, mentor and develop our students who worked as one with him. Recently, I asked Andrew whether he had thought of teaching but his response was, ‘Maybe one day but for now I need to see what’s out there in the world of musical theatre and I want to travel’. And so he should! We owe Andrew and Broden a big vote of thanks for the three years and for this last production. We wish them every future success.

This year, for the first time in memory the production has come in on budget! Ms Amanda Watson, has done an amazing job budgeting and coordinating all aspects, in order to allow the directors to get on with the creativity. With a huge show like this, the expenses run high and I cannot remember a production breaking even, let alone making a small profit. Amanda has achieved this with fine organization and determination, while also this year, taking on an Acting Leading Teacher role as Year 7 Transition and Well-Being. Her contribution to the College is enormous.

This year with 73 students in the cast with an orchestra of 30 and the technical crew of about 40, it was our biggest ever. This production was the last for a number of high profile Year 12 students who have since Year 7 been such leading lights of our music and drama programs. Alicia Surtees, Paul Kascamanidis, Jade-Favretto-Ingverson, Chelsea Tsaparis, Marie Trevithick, Ben Richardson and Bronwyn McKenzie, take a bow! For the Years 7s and 8s, having the opportunity to get to know and learn from these very talented senior students, must be inspiring. As College Performing Arts Captain, Chelsea Tsaparis gave her all to ensure that the spirit of inclusiveness prevailed and that those younger members of the cast who are pushing up, were encouraged. Alicia Surtees as the lead, Tracy Turnblad, proved that she is a high energy performer whose strength led the show. The comedic presence of Jade as Penny Pingleton and the master performance, of Paul, as Edna Turnblad, was a tour de force. Chelsea shone in the role of Motormouth Maybelle as did Sonia Zhou, as her daughter. Peta Petidis and Georgia Rutland took on the principal ‘nasty’ roles with such gusto but we loved their work! The lead boys, Andrew Vassett as ‘Corny Collins’, Sean Malcolm as Wilbur and new comer to the College, Jack Stoddart, as ‘Link’ (all Year 11) along with Jake Lonergan of Year 8, proved that there is lots of depth of talent for next year. The College Production is an amazing learning experience where students from all over the College come together and there is a place for all comers. This year, each and every member of the ensemble delivered a high octane performance and exuded joy. Take a bow ensemble, our community is proud of you!

The live orchestra, led by Patrick Broadbent was just so professional, despite the fact that only two professional musicians were hired for the tricky pieces. Patrick must be very proud of the students who took on the challenging score and played so well. Bravo to the orchestra! Shelley Dunlop who studied singing at the Victoria College of the Arts, did a splendid job as ensemble vocal coach, ensuring such quality singing for the show.

Craig Whittingham of Year 11 was the Student Producer who liaised with Amanda Watson and he along with Sam Mulligan, led the Stage Crew; the big team behind the scenes. All the staging was slick and well organised. Lighting Manager, Jack Williams and Audio Manager, Talfryn Dawlings led crack teams. The Make-up and Hair Team, led by Jennifer Whit ten, did a fantastic job and so did the set painters. Special mention has to be made of ex-student Jack Fordham, who is completing his degree at Victoria College of the Arts. His excellent set design and construction contributed to the vibrance of the show. This is his chosen field and it is obvious he is a man of talent. Well-done to Jack, the set builders, the Stage, Make-up and Tech crews.

Always there are just too many parents who give up valuable time to mention each and every one. The many, many parents who supported this year’s production were wonderful. There were the parents who ferried students to and from the rehearsals; cooked bar-b-ques for rehearsals; helped with the bump in and out; took film and photographs; supplied plates of supper and worked the coffee-shop. Thank you! There were those whose contribution was absolutely vital to the success of the event. I recognize it is always dangerous to single out people but I would like to acknowledge Michael and Jan Wilson, the design team from “WilsonBliss” who produced the souvenir program. This was their fourth program and certainly it was a stunner. Thank you, Michael for your wonderful graphics and design layout and to Jan for her publishing skills. Heather Mulligan, designed the costumes and then, along with her team sewed and sourced them as well as doing all the on-going repairs during the week. Those sixties outfits looked a treat and for those of us who lived through the sixties, they brought back lots of memories. The FOPAVA team just took on all aspects of organizing the behind the scenes support. Fiona Crowe, Gabriella Favretto, Sharon Hankinson, Jan Wilson and Caroline Layton worked with Assistant Principal, John Munro to coordinate the team for the Coffee Shop and make sure that ‘Pinky’s Restaurant’ provided guests with delicious goodies at the intervals and for Sponsors’ Night. The profits from the suppers and the raffle for the bike were certainly, greater than last year. To our parents, ‘A VERY BIG THANK YOU!’

So many teachers came as paying members of the audience and this was a great support to the students too. Food Technology teachers, Linda Robertson, Ruth Perkins and Mike Matthews ensured a quality supply of goodies, while Art teachers Lorraine Guliver and Maria Petakis put up a fine exhibition of student art works. David Antroubus, photographed the show. David Henning assisted at rehearsals and many teachers put in duty nights or attended the movie night. Jess Brown (ex student) and Ben Mogford who are our theatre technicians and have a company Wired 4 Sound, spent endless hours on almost every aspect of the organization. Again, another remarkable contribution. At the College, Mrs Deanne Ioannidis did an amazing job, coordinating sponsors, putting up all the photographs in the foyer of the theatre and also trying to find spare tickets where she could. As he does, every year, Assistant Principal, John Munro put in an enormous week to make sure all was as it should be for his FOPAVA group.

Our Sponsors have a great community consciousness and many are supporters of this College, over and beyond their generosity in helping support this production. Please see the attached sheet and remember them. It is the sponsors, that make it possible, to go that bit extra, to make our productions so close to professional. Thank you sponsors.

The 2014 season of ‘Hairspray’ was outstanding. It was a testimony to students and staff and parents, living the College motto, ‘Caring for Excellence’. Bravo to all!
Presentation Ball and Year 12 Formal:
On Saturday night, the Presentation Ball will be held at The Centre Ivanhoe starting at 7pm. This is the premier event for the Year 11 cohort and we hope it is every bit as special as it should be for the Year 11 students and their partners. The year 12 Formal will be also another event taking place and we hope the Year 12s have a great night that they have organized. One event is organized by the College, the other is a Year 12 private function. I would like students to be very careful and urge parents to ensure their child is safe. The Presentation Ball is well-supervised but after-parties are another thing. Any after-party is organized by students and has nothing to do with the College. We take no responsibility for any after-party nor for the Year 12 Formal.

Principal for a Day:
Principal for a Day is an opportunity for leaders in education and the greater Community to share ideas, resources and a sense of responsibility for schools. It gives community leaders a first hand perspective on the decisions and responsibilities Principals face daily. On Tuesday, 12th August, Viewbank College will welcome Banyule City Councillor, Steven Briffa. Steven is no stranger to our College and we look forward to his visit.

Diversity Day - Upcoming Event

Expressions of Interest!

On Friday 29th August the Viewbank College SRC will be having a casual dress day (wear purple) to celebrate what we are calling ‘Diversity Day’! We are having a day to celebrate the sexual diversity, cultural diversity and individual diversity of our College Community.

We are looking for interested parties who might be interested in helping us celebrate diversity on this day by, for example, having a food stall that is from your cultural background, having a performance/dance/music on the outdoor stage, hosting a stall that has information on a particular group (eg disabled groups, indigenous groups or same sex attracted groups etc).

Students will be required to bring a gold coin donation State School Relief fund and the other half will go to the shade shelters in the year 7 area.

If you are interested in getting involved in the event please let me know at murray.darren@edumail.vic.gov.au

LOTE THEATRE
24th of July 2014
This year the LOTE Theatre held at the Banyule Theatre was another wonderful extravaganza for the LOTE faculty. The Year 10, 11 and 12 Japanese and German students presented an amusing selection of skits, competitions and musical items to a happily involved audience.
A number of songs from the Musical “Hairspray” started the evening with great pizzazz, which was maintained admirably for the whole evening.

The LOTE Captain for 2014, Nicole Scully, was a charming and engaging compere, introducing each item with great wit and aplomb.

We were so well entertained, not only by the performers but also by the wonderful experiences of the students who had been on this year’s exchange to Germany and Japan, that interval came far too swiftly. But interval was a delicious taste experience, as everyone enjoyed the two nods to German and Japanese culture: Kuchen and Sushi.

The performances finally concluded with a rousing rendition of “Stand by me”, sung by everyone, the audience included.

There were many great moments in the evening: Jack Cai’s superb singing, the disastrous Online Dating, the World Cup Alternative Ending and the catchy tune of the Fliegerlied are just a few of the acts that spring to mind. However my two favourites were the Vegemite Song and Germany’s Next Top Model, which magnificently reassured us that Germany is not only renowned for beautiful cars.

Mrs. Maree Gaffney, our Assistant Principal declared this production the best she had seen in her five years at the College; we wish to thank her both for introducing the show and for leading the supportive diligent “Friends of Viewbank”, who so efficiently organized the food at interval.

Many other people made the evening such a great success and I would like to thank the following for their great effort and support: the LOTE Staff - Kaye Mackenzie, Ikumi Suzuki, Clare Fleming and Annette McHutchison Deanne Ioannidis, David Antrobus, Jennifer Varrasso, Tara Draper, Ben Mogford, Jessica Brown, Mrs. Judith Craze and Mr. John Munro

History News - Competitions
In addition to the two competitions mentioned in a recent newsletter, details of another competition have been forwarded to the College.

Living Spirit Fellowship
This is the ‘Living Spirit’ Fellowship, awarded annually by the Greensborough RSL Sub-Branch. These fellowships were established to ‘nurture younger generations to understand the part played by many Australians in ensuring the great freedom we enjoy today is never forgotten.’

Students are required to make a submission in accordance with an Application form and are asked to state what their expectations are regarding a visit to Hellfire Pass and what message they would bring back to the community. This is an amazing opportunity for students to take up. The Fellowship provides airfares, accommodation and organised tour to Thailand for ANZAC Day 2015 for the successful student and his/her parent.

Application forms are now available. Students should see Mrs. Jones in the A block staffroom if they are interested. This fellowship is open to students in years 10, 11 and 12. The closing date for all submissions is Friday 24th October.

A reminder of the other two competitions:

Premier’s Spirit of Anzac Competition
The Premier’s Spirit of Anzac Prize inspires young people to explore the ethos displayed by the Anzacs at Gallipoli and the Western Front and reflect on how those values apply in Victorian communities today. The Prize is open to students in year 9 and 10 at all Victorian secondary schools. Through the competition 12 students from across Victoria will travel on an overseas study tour to Gallipoli and the Western Front.

Students are required to respond to a question about the ANZAC centenary and can enter research essays, artworks, musical compositions or audio, video or web-based presentations. Entries must be received by Friday 17th October, 2014.

All students in year 9 and 10 are encouraged to think about participating in this competition.

See www.veterans.vic.gov.au for more information.

Anzac Day Dawn Service Tour
See www.anzaccenntenary.vic.gov.au for information on how to apply.

Students interested in applying for any or all of these tours should see Mrs. Jones in the A block staff room.

Debating News

Viewbank’s senior students represented the College in Round Four of debating on the 21st of July at Loyola College.

Representing our A grade team was Marie Trevithick, myself and Aaliah Rigby arguing for the negative side on the topic "that the government should provide financial rewards to people who look after their elderly parents.” The debate was incredibly close against St Helena College, but unfortunately we lost.

Andrew Vassett, Joshua Dempsey and Toby Hope, our Year 11 B Grade debaters were up against Assumption College. They argued for the negative side on the topic “that laws about science should only be made by trained scientists”, successfully winning their debate by three points. Toby Hope was selected best speaker. An acknowledgement must also be given to our second B Grade team of Madeleine Olsen-Downing, Lani Sellers and Louisa Harwood, who won their debate after their opponents forfeited.

Our D Grade debaters argued for the negative side on the subject "that the media should not be allowed to report on the private lives of politicians." The Year 9 team consisted of Demetrius Kiriakidis, Joshua Munro and William Patterson. Unfortunately Viewbank lost to Parade College by a mere one point.

Congratulations to all those students who represented the College in round four, everyone involved should be proud of their contributions!

BE SAFE

- Identify yourself, your group and the reason you’re fundraising
- Ask your friends, relatives, fellow workers and neighbours if they’ll help by purchasing one or more items from you
- Please remember safety—no door to door selling
