VCE Results:
The VCE results for 2014 will come out officially on Monday 15th December. Students will receive their results but it is up to them who they will share their results with. The College is not permitted under confidentiality rules to share student results unless permission has been given by a student. Parents cannot contact the College asking for a student’s results. Teachers cannot reveal a student’s outcomes to parents or other students unless a student has given permission. These are tight rules that VCAA insists on to protect the privacy of VCE students.

The College will report on the results in the final newsletter next Friday.

Orientation Day:
On Tuesday, it was a great pleasure to welcome the beginning Year 7 Class of 2015 to the College for their first day. There was much excitement at the start of the day and some nerves too. One young lady whose Mum had left looked a bit teary as she was from a school where only one other person was coming here. She even got a hug from the Principal on her first day but I did explain that this did not happen every day. Later, at lunch when she had a new friend with her, I asked her how it was all going and she signalled that she was really happy.

At the first assembly, our newest students were treated to the Junior Strings who played ‘Secret Agent 440’. These are students from Years 7 and 8 with one Year 9 student playing as well. The performance, conducted by Lia Boulton, was truly beautiful and demonstrated how accomplished our younger strings players are becoming. The Intermediate band under the baton of Mr Mark Eagling, played ‘Siesta San Anton’ to wow our audience. Again a big sound of difference.

After a welcome from me and a quick outline of the day by Ms Amanda Watson, Year 7 Well-Being Leader, Home Group teachers called out their classes and off they went for their programmed day. I spoke to many students at lunchtime and what struck me about this group was their positivity and all looked as if they were happy to have arrived. It is our wish that each child experiences six positive learning years at Viewbank College.

‘Attack of the Zombies’:
Congratulations to the Year 9, 8 and 7 students who made up the cast and crew for ‘Attack of the Zombies’ as it was so much fun and such a polished performance. From the beginning the wonderful set design created just the right backdrop for a scene of mystery and a little spookiness. With 36 students in the cast, this was a big ensemble for a play. I think all students were wonderful. They were confident in their roles and there were lots of very amusing interplays as the high school students get to interact with other unwelcome guests and ‘creatures of the night’. All members of the cast gave strong performances so much so that it would be wrong of me to single out individuals. Besides, I must admit it was so hard to identify many members of the cast, as Ms Georgia Goonan and her big make-up crew, did such a fabulous job with make-up that the ‘zombies’ were beyond recognition.

The crew behind the scenes with Tara Draper as Stage Manager and her Assistant Helen Papandreou ensued complete smoothness of the play. Lighting Managers Alexander Marshall and Dominic Katsikas created all the evocative effects to build the sense of mystery. Terasa Harwood did a great job with costumes as did the Sound Managers, Bridget Kennedy and Guy McGovern. Ms Goonan’s make-up crew consisting of Karina Devries-Apted, Amelia Gee, Amy Purnell, Mikala Martin, Amy Hutchison, Lanaya Marks, Erin Morgan and Marlene Kafka should be very proud of the quality of the make-up. A very big congratulations goes to the members of the directorial team, Performing Arts Captain, Chelsea Tsaparis and her Year 11 assistants, Jordi Hankinson and Peta Petidis. These students have worked tirelessly over the last four months to audition, cast and organize the rehearsals. This champion effort has been on top of their very busy day to day school lives. Bravo Chelsea, Jordi and Peta. Especially impressive is the fact that Chelsea was fitting all this around her demanding Year 12 year as Performing Arts Captain and also as a very focussed student.

To Mr David Henning, Ms Amanda Watson and Ms Georgia Goonan, thank you for your leadership of this key drama event. Thank you to the team of teachers who supported them and our enthusiastic Middle Years students. This was evidence of students and staff working together and ‘Caring for Excellence’.

Year 10 and 11 Awards Ceremony:
Last week’s Awards ceremony for the 2014 Year 10 and 11 students was a long ceremony to mark the achievements of both cohorts. The achievements of this Year 10 and 11 are many. Both levels have been actively involved in so many activities and competitions over the year, not to mention academic excellence and leadership. Former Principal of the College, Mr Peter Gannon, returned to participate in this ceremony and he was just so impressed. He is a College Reviewer and as he explained to our students, he visits many schools and colleges across the state and few offer the breadth of learning experiences that our students have access to. He also congratulated our senior students on their achievements and behaviour during the two and a half hours of awards. Peter was impressed at how students were really tuned into who was getting awards and how much goodwill there was in the room. It is heartening to receive compliments from a person whose expectations were the highest when he was here and to know that we have built on his fine foundations.

I wish to congratulate all award recipients. However the highest academic awards need to be recognised. At Year 11 the highest award is the Patrica Jankus Award and at Year 10 the Peter Gannon Award, named after the founding Assistant Principals of the College. These two awards are for All Round Excel-ience; both academic and extra-curricular involvement. The following students have been recognized as the outstanding students of 2014:

The Year 11 Patricia Jankus Award :
Andrew Vassett
Evlambia Vafiadis

The Year 10 Peter Gannon Award:
Erica Bell
Christopher Nice

We congratulate Andrew, Evlambia, Erica and Christopher for their involvement, enthusiasm and desire for learning. I need to say however, they have many fellow travellers who are to be congratulated on their excellence over this year.

Not only did we appreciate the depth of achievements but we had the benefit of hearing some of the talents of our music students. At the outset of the assembly Sarah Ware sang a beautiful rendition of ‘Advance Australia Fair’ without any notice, to replace a girl who was absent. What a ‘can-do’ attitude that certainly was not lost on her peers who were generous in their applause. Matt Trachevski of Year 10, who has just achieved AMEB Grade 8 for piano, played ‘Rustle of Spring’ by Sinding. As the grand piano could not be moved into the gym, Matt was videoed by Mr Mark Eagling so that his performance could be showcased. Matt ’s performance was flawless and he is an amazing talent. Later in the assembly, Valentina Griesheimer and Andrew Noblelt of Year 11 played an energetic saxophone duet of a contemporary piece called ‘La Almeja Pequena’ by Gordon Goodwin. This was a stunning performance by two master musicians who combined both juxtaposition and harmony. Year 10 boys Oscar McDermott, Ben Cooke and Chris Nice played ‘Dream Catch Me’ by Newton Faulkner. Oscar sang beautifully accompanied by Chris and Ben and I hope to hear lots more from this group.

The Friends of Music Awards went to the following exceptional students:
Matt Trachevski at Year 10
Valentina Griesheimer at Year 11.

Along with musical performances the morning was punctuated with a celebration video for each level which represented the big events of 2014. Thinking globally, Ms Clare Fleming created and presented a video showing our exchange students in Germany and Japan while Mr Sean Hiller, presented his video of the highly successful ‘ G ‘Day USA Tour’ that he led.

This assembly was a credit to the Senior Years Team who meticulously organized the recognition awards and created a ceremony of significance. A big ‘Well Done’ to Senior School Leader, Mrs Sue Calder;
Year 11 Well-Being Leader, Ms Samantha Sissons and her Assistant, Mrs Asha Dey; Year 10 Well-Being Leader, Mrs Tamara Thatcher and her Assistant Mr Sean Hiller. Also I wish to acknowledged the work of Mr John Munro, the Assistant Principal in charge of the Senior School. This leadership team have worked tirelessly with such positive outcomes.

Awards Assembly

On Friday December 5, we held our end-of-year awards assembly to recognise the academic and co-curricular achievements of our senior students for Year 10, Semester 2 and Year 11, Unit 2. We acknowledged the accomplishments, no matter how big or small, of every student. It was a long assembly but this was mainly due to the sheer number of awards – a testament to our students who obviously get involved in the many facets of College life!

We acknowledged the work and efforts of all students who received an Academic Endeavour and /or Co-Curricular Award(s), the SRC Representatives, Communication Leaders, Social Justice Leaders, Peer Support Leaders and Senior Years Student Council Members.

Thank you to the parents who attended. Below is a list of the Academic Achievement Award, Viewbank College Award and Special Award recipients at Years 10 and 11:

We wish you all a very happy and safe festive season and see you in 2015!

Collecting Christmas Goods for Diamond Valley Foodshare:
Jenny Macklin’s office has asked local schools, Colleges and organizations to support an appeal to help families in our immediate area to have a good Christmas. They are collecting essential food items and toiletries to support local families in need. If you wish to donate, you can either drop off donations at the College by the 18th December or donate directly at Jenny Macklin’s office at 149 Burgundy Street, Heidelberg anytime before Friday, 19th December. (Please see accompanying list on the next page of targeted items). Jenny has advised that she will be arranging a certificate for individuals or organizations that support this appeal. This is not about getting a certificate but about helping out people in need. I know we have lots of people with goodwill and that is why we are supporting this appeal. The Festive Season should be about family celebration but for many local families, it creates even greater vulnerability than they may usually experience. Let’s make a difference.

Help local needy families have a happy Christmas this year

INVITATION TO A CEREMONY AT THE SHRINE OF REMEMBRANCE

SATURDAY, 20 DECEMBER 2014, 12.00-12.30 P.M.

The Right Hon. Malcolm Fraser, Former Prime Minister and the Turkish Consul-General in Melbourne, Mr Mehmet Kucukokullu will be guests of honour at a ceremony to mark the end of the war at Gallipoli, between the ANZACs and the Turks.

The guns fell silent in the ANZAC Sector at Gallipoli in the early hours of the 20th of December 1915. The 99th anniversary of this important event is to be commemorated at the Shrine of Remembrance with a wreath laying ceremony at the Sanctuary.

After nearly nine months of fighting, the last of the ANZAC troops evacuated with heavy hearts and in anticipation of a different kind of a Christmas, leaving their dead comrades behind. The Turkish forces were relieved that there would be no more fighting, that they could mourn many thousands who perished defending their homeland and that peace had finally prevailed.

To commemorate the beginning of peace at Gallipoli and the silence of the guns in the ANZAC sector, the Friends of Gallipoli Inc. (FOG), a not-for profit organisation, has co-ordinated a ceremony at the Sanctuary of the Shrine of the Remembrance.

You are invited to witness the event to mark the conclusion of hostilities at Gallipoli, followed by a light luncheon at the Shrine.

Please advise if you wish to lay a wreath.
